JOSEPH POLLOCK

35 Hazel Street

Binghamton, New York, 13902

Another reason to prove that pitching ability is not a criteria for consideration for induction to the Hall of Fame, Joe Pollock, a salesman for the LaTorraine Coffee Co., pitches in the Binghamton, N.Y. league with an average from 30% to 45%, has served the State Association as secretary, longer than any other person, and has served it faithfully. Always demanding strict adherence to the Association by-laws, Joe has successfully promoted tournaments from the league level to the County and State levels, and was noted for his insistence on fairness to all classes of pitchers.

Always quick to speak a good word for his wife Mary, and their 2 sons, Joe is a devout "family man", but his love for the game of horse-shoes clearly demonstrates his "second love", which is apparently the reason for his being the spark-plug of the Binghamton league which has been in existence from the early '30s.
